

WASHER WON BY TEACHER

Mrs. Helen S. Lowry, of 2708 Eldorado, this week won a Hotpoint automatic clothes washer in Hotpoint's $2 million golden anniversary contest.

Jim Siegrist of Nicola's TV, 1875 West Carson street, said that official contest judges selected Mrs. Lowry for having the best dealer prize entry from this immediate area.

The contest rules asked that individuals submit a statement on why they would like to win the Hotpoint automatic clothes washer.

Nicola's sponsored the Torrance contest as part of the national anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Lowry is a third grade teacher at Madrona elementary school.

Alter Real Estate Boom

Jerry Alter, president of the Alter Realty and Insurance, announced today that his firm has sold more than one million five hundred thousand dollars worth of Torrance and vicinity real estate in the first nine months of this year.

The Alter Realty and Insurance company is assured of meeting the $2,000,000 goal set for the firm for January 1, 1956 Alter said. Special praise went to the Crenshaw office staffed by the "Claytons," who lead the 14 offices in total sales so far for this year.

Pole Sitter Sees Child 65 Feet Up

Famous Hal Ingram, determined "Chief High Trader," the Pontiac Twins resolute flag pole sitter, has now been atop the 65 foot pole for 59 days without showing signs of "giving up the ship."

A week ago, by arrangements made through Twin Pontiac, sponsors of the attempt to set a new world's record of 196 days, Ingram saw his 21 day old baby. Amid the flutter of newspaper flashbulbs and Movietone and VHS newsreel cameras, the sales force of Twin Pontiac, 505 Pacific Coast highway, Hermosa Beach, heisted the 11 pound baby up to Ingram.

This was the first time in the history of flag pole sitting that a newborn had been shown to his father that far into the stratosphere. Previous to that trip up, Ingram had seen the child a week earlier when the "Eye Witness" television show videoed Mrs. Ingram and the baby. This was Ingram's first glimpse of the child, and at that, over television.

If Ingram breaks the present record he'll be accorded a scholarship to the University of Southern California to complete his schooling... (advertisement)
